PROFILE

Full-stack AI developer building real, production-grade apps with real users and measurable impact. Self-taught since age 12; ships fast, earns real income, leads teams, and founds nonprofits. Open to internships, collabs, and commissions.

EXPERIENCE

Software Engineering Intern

May 2026 – Present

Venu AI

- Saved senior engineers ~3 hrs/week by building an AI PR Review Bot that automates the team's pull request pipeline, reviewing 40+ PRs.

Full-Stack Software Developer

Oct 2022 – Present

Self-Employed

- Shipped 8+ production platforms with real users — Spaotify (Spotify clone), Aadoc (Google Docs clone), BGRemoval (AI background remover with Stripe billing), and AirTrace (App Store flight tracker)
- Built Callzi (callzi.online) — an AI voice receptionist that captures inbound leads in real time so local service businesses never miss revenue; answers calls, books appointments, and logs every interaction 24/7 (Next.js, Twilio, real-time AI)
- Built samacrushthecode.com for author Samaira Mehta (TIME Top 8 young leaders); physics-based mini game, character quiz, and pre-order flow
- Published BoreNoMore, a gamification iOS app (50+ downloads), and Get Stuff Done, a Chrome focus-blocker extension

Lead Roblox Developer

Jul 2023 – Present

Troll Tower

- Scaled Troll Tower to 66M+ visits, 10,000 peak concurrent players, and 25,000 favorites as lead developer
- Earned $500+ cash + 80,000 Robux (~$300 USD) building custom Luau script commissions

Founder

May 2024 – Present

Loquat4Humanity (Non-Profit)

- Raised $500+ for NICU families in season one (goal: $1,000) through a charity I founded and built end-to-end, inspired by my own 3-month premature birth; harvested 60+ lbs of loquats
- Earned press in India-West and Silicon Valley Voice; live at loquat4humanity.com

Chief Operating Officer

Jun 2024 – Present

Yes, One Billion Kids Can Code

- Coordinate and expand global chapters and run weekly communications across worldwide teams, advancing STEM and AI access through live coding workshops

Co-Inventor

Oct 2019 – Present

CoderMindz & CoderMarz (with Samaira Mehta)

- Sold 27,000+ copies of two co-invented AI/space coding board games across 2,000+ schools and 700+ libraries worldwide
